Weekly News-Letter

From the Desk of Representative Emil A. Peltz.

Because of the fact that I was appointed as a member of the conference with the Governor prior to the Legislative session it was necessary for me to leave early for Lansing. I made it an extra day earlier by coming down on December 31. By so doing I avoided the usual New Year's eve celebration as well as the congested and otherwise hazardous traffic that one usually encounters on New Years Day.

It was also possible for me to attend the inaugural ceremony of the Governor and the other State officials on January first. A large crowd was on hand and listened with interest to the Governor's inaugural address.

The conference with the Governor the next day was short and of little value in that no mention was made of any specific avenues of agreement. The Governor merely pointed out that he hoped that there could be co-operation, but did not commit himself on any particular issue. The general feeling was that little was accomplished. Because of the many statements he had made during the campaign against members of the Legislature that he himself knew not to be true, there was doubt in the minds of most of those attending the conference that he could have a change of heart and really be sincere about his statements now.

The session opened at noon on Wednesday, January 3rd. The usual business of organizing was taken care of in a short time. Mr. Victor Knox of Sault Ste. Marie was elected Speaker of the House of Representatives without opposition as was Robert Montgomery of Lansing for speaker pro tem.

On Thursday we convened in joint convention and heard the Governor's message to the Legislature. It was a very lengthy address lasting nearly an hour. His first subject was the Civilian Defense program with which we are all concerned. It is evident that in this program the State must play an important part.

Under the subjects directly connected with the defense effort he included Agriculture, Seal of Quality for farm products, the right for Rural Co-operatives to condemn property, Economic Development, a Fair Employment Practice Law, a Housing Program for Townships and Counties, Highways, Mackinac Bridge, a Corporation Tax, Labor and Industry relations, increased Workmen Unemployment Compensation and permit voting at age 18.

He advocated an increased Social Welfare program and several changes in our educational system including minimum wage for teachers. He again suggested that money for the improvement of our highways be taken from the General Fund.

It is impossible to mention here all of the subjects that were included in the message. They will come up for further discussion from time to time. Many of his suggestions were good. We need to change our election laws somewhat. Veteran legislation must be changed to include veterans of the Korean War. Many others could be mentioned.

All in all the program calls for huge additional expenditures. To solve the financial problems the Governor depends for everything on the lone corporations tax. The question of where the rest of the money is going to come from he leaves for the Legislature to solve.

Lose To Alpena By 60-54 Score

The Grayling and Roscommon Independent basketball teams will face the Essexville Merchants and Aetna Cement of Bay City, respectively in a double header court match in the Grayling High School Gym Saturday night.

In the first of what was hoped to be a series of Saturday night games with higher class independent basketball teams, Grayling lost to the Hornet Oilers of Alpena, 60 to 54. Alpena led by Francis Curran, Alpena Catholic Central coach and former Notre Dame star and basketball captain put on a surge in the last three quarters of the game to win by the margin of three field goals. Curran was uncanny in his shooting from the field, sinking 10 field goals and clicking on 10 of 11 free throws for a 30 point total.

Grayling was weakened by the loss of Jim Feldhauser to the Air Corps and the illness of Roger Giegling who was unable to enter the game. They, however, gave Alpena a tough battle right from the opening whistle and by the end of the first quarter held a 15 to 11 lead. By halftime Alpena led 30 to 25 and stepped it up to a 45 to 32 lead at the end of the third frame. Ross Thompson of Ed Smith turned in outstanding

Rev. Mason Lectures On Chili

Following a short business meeting of the Women's Society for Christian Service of Michelson Memorial Church the group joined the Youth Fellowship and members of the Church and friends to hear Rev. Walter Mason of the Mission Field in Chile.

Rev. Mason is a native of North Dakota, and a graduate in Chemistry of the North Dakota School of Agriculture. His last year in school he came to realize that there were sufficient chemists and not enough to follow the Ministry. He entered Garret Institute in the fall quarter where he received his Bachelor's degree of Divinity.

After a short pastorate in Indiana he was called by the Methodist Church to the Mission Field in Chile. He served as teacher superintendent of schools and at the time of the beginning of his furlough minister of the area in which he lived.

Rev. Mason gave a visual and comprehensive knowledge of the work being carried on in Chile in the field of Agriculture.

Grayling, Roscommon Indies In Double Header Saturday Night

games on the boards with Ted Bennett and Sandy Thompson playing fine floor games. Dick Bielski starting his first game for the Indies turned in an aggressive game and Spok Smack and Jim Kolka relieving nicely.

The crowd was a little disappointing to the Indies and in order to continue with the Saturday night games it will be necessary to have bigger gate receipts to take care of the extra expenses involved. Besides the double header scheduled this Saturday night, the Indies are corresponding for games with the Saginaw All Stars, Mount Pleasant Oilers, Michigan State College All Stars for games in the future. The M. S. C. outfit is made up mostly of football seniors like All American Evert Grandelius and Hank Minarik. If the public wishes to see teams of this caliber playing in Grayling, the efforts of the Indies will need the support of every basketball fan in town.

In the Alpena game, the Indies scoring was led by Bennett with 17 points. Ross Thompson added 15, Sandy Thompson 10, Ed Smith 11 and Bielski 1.

This Saturday night's schedule calls for Roscommon to face the Aetna Cement in the opening game at 7:30 with Grayling meeting the Essexville Merchants of Bay City in the nightcap.

The Good Life

For the first time since the American revolution, with the exception of the War Between the States, the people of our country are faced with a stark test of faith. The conflict with world communism now is not to save the world for democracy, but to repel an enemy who is determined to destroy in our land the Christian ideal of human dignity and individual liberty and the political system which upholds that ideal. Our faith and our strength is this ideal.

As a nation we came through World War II with little discomfort. Living standards have risen to record levels. So has the public debt which is exacting its toll in depreciating money. However, it is evident that devalued dollars have not yet cramped our style. Last year, according to the Commerce Department, U. S. citizens spent a staggering $178,832,000,000. The fabulous "American way" is well illustrated in a current joke which defines a pedestrian as a motorist who has found a place to park his car. The list of American "haves" could go on indefinitely. Already there are 8,000,000 television sets in our homes—homes which are equipped with tens of millions of deep freezes, refrigerators, electric stoves, radios, washing machines, ad infinitum.

In retrospect, after nearly two centuries of freedom and the boundless progress that only freedom could have achieved, it would be a wonder if we were not confused when suddenly confronted with the prospect of a fight for actual survival. But the time when we can afford confusion has nearly run out. These words of Lenin, uttered thirty years ago, ring with new significance: "As long as capitalism and socialism remain we cannot live in peace. In the end, one or the other will triumph—a funeral requiem will be sung either over the Soviet Republic or over world capitalism. . . . We have to use any ruse, dodges, tricks, cunning, unlawful methods, concealment and veiling of the truth."

This is the ruthless concept, backed by vast military force, which is confronting America and the world. To meet it we will need more than arms and men. We will have to lay our sights on primary objectives and keep them there. We must forget the adolescent notion that material security is an unqualified "right." The "rights" embodied in the American ideal are few and elemental. They include equality of opportunity, freedom of speech and religion and the protection of private property. They are the tools with which the individual may achieve "life, liberty, and pursuit of happiness."

In a word, it is time we again understood what this country really stands for. John Dos Passos, the distinguished American author, has said, "this country was not founded to furnish glamorous offices for politicians, or to produce goods and services, or handouts of easy money. This country was founded to make men free." In the wealth of material comfort we have enjoyed so long, we have tended to forget that great truth. Now we must return to the simple fundamental—"This country was founded to make men free."

We face a two-fisted task. We must fight with all we have against our enemies outside. And, while we are undergoing all the sacrifices and trials that may involve, we must keep our people free. One of the greatest dangers is that we may grant so much unlimited authority to the government that the system of checks and balances which stands between us and tyranny will be permanently destroyed. The problem of economic controls is a perfect example here. They should be imposed only if they are clearly necessary to implement the war effort. Otherwise, we will have control for control's sake—which is the essence of dictatorship. Then our productive capacity will be crippled and, far more important, we will no longer be a free people—we will have lost the battle.

We Americans have come to a climatic phase in the history of the good life. It is our duty to hold together for future generations the framework of freedom which made that good life possible.

The loss by fire of the volumes of 1903 and 1904 of the Avalanche disturbs the continuity of the publication of our "twenty five years ago" column. However beginning with this issue we will step ahead two years and continue the publication as 23 years ago.

48 Years Ago—December 15, 1904

Lamenting the fact that we were unable to locate the bound files of the Avalanche for 1903 and 1904 we turned to the next volume and found there an account of the burning of the Avalanche office on the night of Monday, December 12, 1904. The account is in part as follows: The Avalanche is no more. At 12:30 Monday night fire took it. The loss is estimated to be between $7,000 and $8,000 consisting of printing machinery, type, stock, agricultural implements, wagons, sleighs, cutters, sewing machines, office supplies and law books. Insurance $1,000. With the aid of neighbors publication of the Avalanche was continued until Dr. Palmer purchased the old Times plant which he temporarily operated upstairs over the Chris Hanson building.

Test Tube
Vs. Polio

For generations polio was accepted as one of the "mystery diseases" of mankind, an elusive destroyer and crippler, striking unpredictably with epidemic force. Today, medical science knows a great deal about polio. The "mystery" phase is past. The period of exploration, discovery and eventual conquest is well under way.

With funds provided by the March of Dimes, the nation's top scientists are hard at work in hospital and university laboratories, exploring every reasonable approach that may lead to the ultimate control of polio epidemics and conquest of the disease as an individual affliction.

The recent discovery that polio virus could be grown in test tubes, using non-nervous tissue as the culture medium, has been acclaimed as a new milestone in polio research. It has greatly widened the field for the research scientists in their efforts to find a vaccine, drug or serum effective against infantile paralysis.

In its thirteen years of existence, the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis has authorized the expenditure of $11,753,736 in March of Dimes funds for research. Of this amount, $8,841,158 has been granted in the field of virus research, while $2,912,578 has been allocated to study of prevention and treatment of the disease's crippling after-effects.

There is a sound basis for the hope that some day polio will be controlled or wiped out by science—through the March of Dimes.

Friendship—Four Thousand Miles Apart

Never quite got the hang of how to play chess myself, but I'll say this for the game—it started one of the strongest friendships I know of: between Dad Wilson in our town and a fellow in Sudbury, England.

The two of them have never met or seen each other—but for eight or nine years they've been playing chess by mail together. Dad puzzles over the Englishman's latest letter, takes a couple of days to think it over, and then airmails a chart of his next move.

Dad always thinks best with a mellow glass of beer beside his chessboard. And the fellow in England writes that he does the same. "Almost as if we were in the same room," says Dad contentedly.

From where I sit, you can talk about diplomacy and foreign policy, but it's often little friendly things—like a game of chess or a glass of beer—that can make for tolerance and understanding ... between people of different nations, between folks here at home!
